Beskrivning

Författare: Karin Oswald.

How can you work with sick children!
Sometimes the tone is almost accusing.
As if I'm the one who has made them sick.
I wish that my job wasn't needed,
that there were no sick children in the world.
But here they are,
and I want to make them feel better,
or at least make them as comfortable as possible.
It's as simple as that.

Glimpses from a Children's Hospital is a poetry book about the life of a nurse assistant in Sweden. The poems are presented in both Swedish and English.

Annan Information

I have, of course, paid Granny a few visits at the hospital because she has always been an important person in my life. We are quite alike in the character, although at my age, Granny had been married for several years, she had two children, and sadly she became a widow before she turned 30. But those were other times,.
